World market leader ranking

WEBER-HYDRAULIK GMBH celebrates top position in WirtschaftsWoche's "World Market Leader Champions 2025" ranking

Güglingen, November 10, 2025. WEBER-HYDRAULIK GMBH is delighted to have once again been named a world market leader in the prestigious WirtschaftsWoche ranking "World Market Leader Champions 2025." This recognition once again honors the company as a leading provider in the field of hydraulic rescue systems.

Its inclusion in the WirtschaftsWoche ranking underscores the group's leading role in international competition.

Under the brand name WEBER RESCUE SYSTEMS, the family-owned company develops, manufactures, and distributes innovative rescue technology at its locations in Güglingen (Germany) and Losenstein (Austria).

The award is based on criteria such as global market presence, high export quota, technological innovation, and sustainable growth.

"We are proud to be among the world market leaders again in 2025," emphasizes Christine Grotz, managing partner of the group of companies. "This recognition is proof of the quality of our products and the passion of our employees, who contribute every day to developing innovative and reliable solutions."
